LIVELY RELIGIOUS CONTROVERSY.

Gallup, N. M., Aug. 5-On my return from an extensive trip in the south of my parish, my attention called to an article signed Dr. C. E. Lukens, a so called answer to an article of mine which appeared in The Citizen on the 5th of July.

My article was called by an editorial of the Boston Transcript (sent to chib. me by a Massachusetts lawyer) com- feated by a reore of 23 to 6. tion of New Mexico. That editorial was brought forth by a paper read by a "elncere and devoted worker" of San Mateo at a meeting in Boston. in commenting this paper, the Boston Pranscript had said "In this part of the Porter catt a sanch in the national domain it appears, paganism is rampant, ignorance flourish es and degradation is the common condition. But this is not all, for he is a past master in logic. To prove that the "two defenseless girls" were right, he abuses me as well as my church, right and left.

It is useless for me to show that Catholic church does not allow the practice of idolatry and drunkenness-for in spite of the assertion of among our fair-minded Protestant believes that we Catholics are idolators. Nor will I answer the charges against me for they are either too silly or too preposterous.

I could retaliate, for Rev. Dr. C. E. Lukens, M. D. is vulnerable, and he knows it; I conto even discuss that famous Laguns meeting, at which Messrs. Marmon and Gunn were preent, and have once more the laugh on my side, but I shall not do so.
